Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "gratuitous" free any more than a merchant can lose over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in the trade and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

A FEW WORDS ABOUT OUR SHOES!

When we concluded to handle Men's and Youth's shoes quality was the first consideration in our purchase. As ranks in merit all our various lines, so will the merit of our shoes rank, too. Messrs. Smith & Stoughton, who made our shoes for us, say to us, "Your $2 and $2 50 Men's shoes excel all others at the price." They further say, "We made you a shoe to retail at $3 that any $4 shoe made in the world. We warrant every pair of them. The above-mentioned lines

Are in and on Sale!

The balance of our stock, comprising many new novelties in different shades and finish, are all in make and will soon be in. It will pay you to wait for them if you can conveniently do so.

A word or two about our Fall stock of Clothing!

Our entire lines are in. They represent the productions of the leading manufacturers of Tailor-made Clothing in the country.

There are no Novelties in the market, such as Plaids, Checks, Stripes and Colors, that are not represented in our stock.

We will take much pleasure to show to you, whether you wish to buy or not. Favor us with your critical examination. See what we have. Respectfully.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 5 o'clock tomorrow evening.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

T. P. Bradley is in Lexington today.

Miss Ivy Helm spent Thursday in Higginsport.

Mr. John Altmyer, Foreman of The Bulletin, has returned from a visit to relatives at Taylorville, Ill.

Colonel O. O. Stealey, Washington correspondent of The Courier-Journal, was at the New Central Saturday.

Miss Hattie Burrows left yesterday for Cincinnati, where she will be joined by her sister Miss Fannie, and about October 1st will move from Vanceburg to Portsmouth.

Mr. Thomas G. Othman, with his friend Lyman Speers, Steward of the steamer Boananza, are spending a few days with Mr. George W. Othman.

Major Ben Davis of Vanceburg has just returned from the East. He spent yesterday with his parents here, and about October 1st will move from Vanceburg to Portsmouth.

This is "Labor Day."

Thieves smashed a large plate glass in the front of H. C. Doolittle & Co.'s Bookstore at Manchester Saturday morning and got away with six watches valued at $150.

There were three persons received into full connection at the M. E. Church yesterday. The Pastor, Rev. F. W. Harrop, went to Conference this morning, which convenes at Pineville.

THE LEDGER last month paid $5.95 postage on its daily edition. If any other daily in the city paid as much as $1.75 we'd like to hear from it.

The youngest son of Mr. Nat Wood got too close to the heels of a mule his brother was riding Saturday, and the animal kicked the little fellow in the face, severely mashing his chin and otherwise bruising him.

Miss May Ford is entertaining Misses Grace, Gertrude, Florence and Mr. D. C. Calbreath, Messrs. W. T. Stevenson, L. B. Linnair and J. M. Menzies, Jr., of Covington, and Miss Bascom of Sharpsburg. They constitute a pleasant house party.

A couple of buggies collided on Market street about dusk last evening, but no one was hurt.

J. H. Rains & Co. pay the highest market price for wheat and rye, and have for sale the best brands of flour and salt.

The upstart on the C. and O. yesterday morning was over an hour late. The six-mile-an-hour ordinance must be in force all along the line.

Look out for tomorrow's big edition of THE LEDGER. Two thousand extra copies will be distributed in Mason and adjoining counties.

You will find P. J. Murphy's stock of Gold Watches and Diamonds larger than elsewhere, his prices are always lower, quality is unsurpassed. With these three advantages you do yourself an injustice if you fail to see his stock before buying.

I. M. Lane & Co. have rented the building next door to the First National Bank, No. 17 West Second street, for the purpose of exhibiting the Darby Gas Burner. They expect some tomorrow and due notice will be given the public to come and examine same.

Saturday Judge Hutchins refused to grant Colonel Baldwin's request for regards to be placed at the tollgates recently raided on the Lexington pike. The refusal is based on the fact that the corporation has not complied with the provisions of the new Constitution and the corporation law. It is thought the company will apply to the higher Courts for protection.

Yesterday morning Messrs. Curtis Williamson, Ass. Burgess and Cooper Burgess started for the Cherry Grove Camp-meeting in a buggy. On East Fourth turnpike the horse shied at something on the side of the pike and started to run. The driver, being unable to manage the horse, attempted to get out, when the buggy upset, throwing them all out, smashing a wheel and part of the shafts off, and seriously bruising the boys.

SUDDENLY STRICKEN.

Mr. Hiram H. Collins Paralyzed Yesterday Morning—His Condition.

Mr. Hiram H. Collins, of the Collins & Rudy Lumber Company, was yesterday morning stricken with paralysis at his home in the Sixth Ward.

About 8 o'clock he had gone into the bathroom where he fell to the floor. He was removed to his room and a physician summoned, when it was found that the entire right side was affected.

Mr. Collins had a slight attack about ten months ago, since which time he has been deeply concerned about a recurrence, although there were no premonitions of yesterday's stroke.

THE LEDGER regrets to say that his condition is not at all encouraging.

THE OLD-TIME FAIR.

The Kind They Used to Have in Days Long Gone By.

The question, "What do you mean by an old time fair?" has been asked so often as to prompt a public reply. In the ante-bellum days our citizens lived far more uselessly than now. They seemed to believe in the principle of fraternity, hospitality. To these ends they had ingatherings, harvest homes and country fairs, which were nothing more than big picnics prolonged or barbecues long drawn out. To these annual events the whole neighborhood would turn out. "Pap and Mother with Malinda, Ann, Bill and Sam" would come in the old springwagon, having a bountifully filled dinner basket, expecting to see neighbor Leechman or friend Jenkins at the fair and have them take dinner with us.

Now, in a nutshell, this is what is meant, only in addition to the happiness of commingling with acquaintances you are privileged to enjoy up-to-date attractions, these having been contracted for by the present Manager of our Fair.

A Wild West show, a balloon ascension, a high wire walker, a higher tower diver, a hippodrome show, a vaudeville entertainment, splendid music—these will begin on Wednesday and last till Saturday, each afternoon being set apart for them, all for one price of admission, 25 cents, no extra charge for grand stand or entertainments.

Remember the dates, September 22d to 25th.

HITS THEM HARD!

A Revenue Collector Who Ridicules the Civil Servicers.

OTHERS SHOULD FOLLOW SUIT.

Collector of Internal Revenue James D. Brady of the Richmond (Va.) District has defied the Civil Service Commission, and the Internal Revenue branch of the Treasury seems to uphold him in what he has done.

Shortly after Collector Brady took hold of the office he gave the Deputies to understand that he intended to be Collector. He made the bold statement that inasmuch as he was under bond and responsible not only for what he did, but for what his Deputies did and failed to do, he proposed to know who those Deputies were, and see that they were men in whom he himself could place explicit trust.

Collector Brady has set an example which it is thought other Collectors will follow. The recent modification of the regulations issued by the President related only to Stamp Deputies. That class only was taken out of the classified service. Collector Brady has found a way of getting rid of the other class. Under the recent decision of Judge Jackson of the Federal Court of West Virginia it was held that the offices of Deputy United States Marshals were continuous, and that they continued to serve despite the change in the head of the office. This decision was based upon the Civil Service Law. Comptroller Bowler, however, held that the men could not be paid unless they were reappointed by the Marshal.

Under the existing law the Deputy Collectors of Internal Revenue must take the oath of office under the new Collector, although the Civil Service Commission has held that they are a continuing set of officers, as in the case of Deputy Marshals. Collector Brady thinks differently, and the Internal Revenue Department is of the same opinion. It is admitted, however, that Mr. Brady must go to the Commission and have names of candidates who have passed the examination certified up to him. These candidates must be residents of the District in which they are to serve. Here is where Collector Brady finds a way out of his situation and sets the pace for all other Collectors of the country.

When he entered upon the discharge of his duties he simply refused point blank to appoint new Deputies. When he was criticised for so doing he pointed to section 3145 of the Revised Statutes which says: "That each Collector of Internal Revenue shall be authorized to appoint, by an instrument in writing under his own hand, as many Deputies as he may think proper, to be compensated for their services by such allowance as shall be made by the Secretary of the Treasury upon the recommendation of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue."

This is as specific as the English language can make it, Collector Brady says, and so does the Department. They also claim that a period is put to the terms of the Deputies, by inference at least, in Section 3140, which reads:

"In case of a vacancy occurring in the office of a Collector the Deputies of such Collector shall continue to act until his successor is appointed."

Collector Brady contends that he is the successor of the Democrat who has just gone out of office, and that that Collector's Deputies ceased to be Deputies when he was himself appointed unless he sees fit to reappoint them, and that is what Collector Brady says he will not do. There are fourteen of these Deputies, and Mr. Brady has notified them that they cannot be reappointed, he proposing to go to the eligible list of the Commission and have the names of those who are on the list certified up to him.

It is an easy matter for him to ascertain the politics of the men who are thus certified, and it is another easy matter for him to show that the Democrats who may have been certified are incompetent.

In this way he will be able to fill his office with Republican Deputies, and Collector Brady is said to be the kind of a man to work this kind of a game.

Eyesight

Is of such great value that one ought to take more than ordinary precautions to guard against every possible trouble.

If you have even a remote suspicion that there is any trouble with your eyes it will be for your own best interests to have your vision tested and trouble, if any, removed.

Very simple troubles may develop serious results if not properly treated.

Ordinary failing eyesight receives our most careful attention, both as to glasses and frames.

It's just as important to have the right frame as the right glass, and from our large stock we can give you the correct thing in either Gold, Silver or Steel.

We make no charge for examinations, and if yours is a case requiring the services of an oculist we will frankly tell you so.

A "Correction" That Doesn't Correct Worth a Continental Free-Silver Dollar.

Mr. Robert L. Dixon and Miss Fannie Hadden, both of Pineburg, were married at the M. E. Church, South, in this city yesterday by the Rev. J. S. Sims—Ledger.

The above piece is incorrect. The name should be Robert L. Dickson. Mr. Robert L. Dixon is in the employ of the well known and beloved firm of Snowden, Kidd & Co., Commission Merchants of Cincinnati, and resides at 1213 Wheeler street, Covington, Ky.—Living Inquirer.

The above "correction" is incorrect—unless Mr. Dixon doesn't know his own name. He wrote it on the License Book, with his own hand, "Robert L. Dixon," just as THE LEDGER gave it. Try again.
